

More Drinks. Less Queues.

OUR VISION

WE DEMAND CONVENIENCE!

With the world at our fingertips literally, we have the ability to order groceries, get a takeaway or even hail a taxi during Coronavirus without the need for human contact. However it seems there isn't quite the solution to allow us to safely get a round of drinks in.

Never queue up at a bar again, simply add your drinks to your basket, pay and collect at the bar when notified. Spend more time with friends socialising at safe distances and less time queuing at the bar.

Zaheer Jamil

"We experienced the problem first hand, it's something that needs to be addressed. The process of ordering drinks becomes so complicated, we wanted to simplify it, within the means of a few clicks right from your phone!"

James Bruce

"We all know how empty a day feels without our phones, our lives practically revolve around them. Even when you're on a night out, you're still tapping away on your phone - it only made perfect sense to allow customers to order from their phone as well."
